

PROFILE

Gary J. Chambers is a voiceover artist, audiobook narrator, and stage actor, living and working in Tacoma.

"I was the school class clown; the one making faces and creating funny voices to make the kids laugh. All that 'practice' evolved into a career."

Narrator/Producer of over twenty audiobooks of varying genres, Mr. Chambers specializes in non-fiction works; particularly in the History, Memoir, and Business genres. His warm tenor voice has been described as, "filled with light and liveliness," and "wholly listenable."

Gary hold a B.A. in Mass Communication and Journalism. He says, "We're no longer editing with stone knives and bear skins and my studio has evolved with the digital age. Fusing state of the art technology with top of craft performance, I look forward to bringing an artful interpretation of your words to life!"

AUDIOBOOK REVIEWS

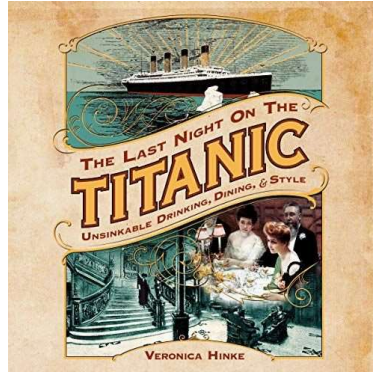

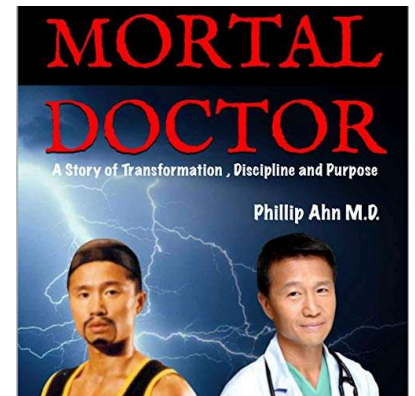

"Gary Chambers was a wonderful narrator. Spend a lovely afternoon listening to Sweet Surrender. You'll thank yourself over and over again."

- Patricia Brost, Audible Listener, "Sweet Surrender"

"A fascinating and uplifting autobiography! The audiobook is read superbly by Gary J. Chambers, who embodies Phillip's character and world, and you could believe it is his voice!"

- Chris Marlow, Audible Listener, "Mortal Doctor"

This is the first book I've listened to by this narrator (Gary J Chambers) and I would listen to another. I think he read this content well. His pacing was good and diction clear.

-- Audible Listener

"Awesome narrator. I've read every book ever on this subject and can say this is an excellent amalgamation."

- Tim, Audible Listener "Hacking the Out of Body Experience"
